Did you know?

India hosts 75% of the world's tigers, with an estimated 3,682 as per the 2023 NTCA report. Project Tiger has helped increase their population since 1973, making India a leader in tiger conservation!