

The Eco Mark Scheme is an eco-labelling initiative launched by the Government of India in 1991, was one of Asia's earliest ecolabelling initiatives, designed to promote eco-friendly products and enhance consumer awareness by providing a clear label for identifying environmentally friendly goods.