

Tips for Eco-friendly Navratri Celebration

The most revered Hindu festival, Navratri is celebrated worldwide annually. This festival spans over nine nights where devotees worship Maa Durga and her nine avatars, known as Navdurgaby fasting customs, abstaining from certain foods and performing Garba (a dance form).

Here are some 9 eco-friendly tips to celebrate Nav-ratri this season:

1. Use of Eco-Friendly Clay Idols

2. Make Rangoli using flowers, leaves and rice flour

3. Use hand rolled incense stick

4. Use bio-degradable tableware

5. Use eco-friendly decorations

6. Adopt Symbolic immersion

7. Buy jewelry made of recycled or reused materials

8. Say No to Plastic & loud music

9. Clean up drive after celebrations

Consumer Education & Research Centre - Environmental Information, Awareness, Capacity Building and Livelihood Programme Programme Centre, Resource Partner on "Environment Literacy- Eco-Labeling & Eco-friendly Products"